

Where Did I Come From?

by Alan Paramor (as Alan Moore) & Peter Pavey (as Partridge Green)

Where did I come from Daddy, on the day that I was born?
Did the stork really fly over rooftops high one bright and sunny morn?
The only storks I've ever seen were in cages at the zoo
So how could the stork have brought me here? I wonder if it's true

Where did I come from Mummy, on the day that I was born?
Did you find me under a gooseberry bush one bright and sunny morn?
I've looked all down the garden, there's raspberries and strawberries too
But we haven't got any gooseberry bush so I wonder if it's true

Where did I come from Nanny, on the day that I was born?
Did the doctor call with his little black bag one bright and sunny morn?
I peeped inside the doctor's bag when Daddy had the 'flu
But I couldn't see any babies there so I wonder if it's true

All I could see were scissors and things when I stood up on my toes
And cotton wool and bandages but he couldn't have made me of those
It's funny they won't tell me, I wonder what's the snag
Was it the stork or the gooseberry bush or the doctor's little black bag?
Yes it's funny they won't tell me, if they won't play the game
I shall tell them that I'm going back to the place from where I came
